APPALACHIAN ENTREPRENEURSHIP ACADEMY

What does it take to be an entrepreneurial leader in Appalachia?

Appalachia's high school seniors enrolled in the 2020-2021 school year are invited to apply for the Appalachian Entrepreneurship Academy (AEA), a four-week, all expenses paid, immersive entrepreneurial experience!

What is AEA?

- A residential summer program for the next generation of Appalachian innovators and entrepreneurs.
- An opportunity for skill building tutorials in business planning, product development, and idea modeling.
- Paid work experience with businesses, startups, and other members of Appalachia's budding entrepreneurial ecosystem.
- A chance to win seed funding in a team based professional pitch competition.

Founded by the Appalachian Regional Commission and made possible by the Institute for Educational Leadership.
